Excerpt: .prava jubens that could shake the justum et tenacem propositi virum; firm as the rock whose foundation was laid by the God of nature, he was as impracticable to the violent storm of abuse, as to the insulting breeze of flattery--and Or was justly executed. For twelve months after this, (and perhaps to this moment) the seat of Justice was the butt upon which all the arrows of sedition were discharged, and every essay and every paragraph concluded with, Chamberlain, ReMember Or. About this time I was speaking to the present Attorney General upon the steps of the King s Bench, when he was suddenly called into Court: There now, said he tome, I am called in to argue a question upon an executory devise, and I am utterly ignorant what M to say, or what is to be said upon it; the whole question...
