Clear Light Publishers. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Best of Dee Brown's West: An Anthology, Stan Banash, "If my library of Western America was limited to a single book, I think it would have to be this wonderful anthology. Dee Brown has been our master." (Tony Hillerman)"The stories of such well-known figures as Lewis and Clark, Jim Bridger, Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid as well as other, more obscure characters are told as if Brown himself had lived closely with each. Supplemented by period photographs and illustrations, the anthology reads like fiction but educates as well. the best collection of his essays, showcasing his empathetic treatment of his subjects and his careful research, factors that have earned him high honors." He offers accounts of the Trail of Tears, the Santa Fe Trail, western settlement, the Plains Indians, war and peace between whites and Indians, and an assortment of intrigues, crimes, and scandals. Containing...
