The prudential committee met and appointed the committee as follows: Rev. John Dooly, Marshall S. Bidwell, Henry W. Langdon, Miss Jessie A. Townsend. This Committee now places before the friends of the church the results of their labor and search. They are greatly indebted to former writers for information gleaned from The History of Berkshire County, printed in 1829, as also the history printed in 1885. They are also thankful to the many friends who, in response to request for historical reminiscences by the Committee of Arrangements for the anniversary exercises, have given many facts of rare interest not hitherto printed. This History before its...
