Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Penacook in the War for the Union At a meeting of the Post, in October, 1888, I was requested to write a paper on the men who went from Penacook, - or, as it was known in 1861, Fisherville, - to the War of the Rebellion, and who lost their lives in battle, or from the effects of wounds or disease. The object of the Post in making this request was two-fold, - (1) to preserve from oblivion the memory of those whose loss brought honor and mourning to our community, and (2) to close the observance of Memorial Day in a manner befitting the sacredness of such an occasion. This could not help being a sad duty for me, as it recalled to remembrance the features of many with whom I was associated in the school-room, mill, or shop; but it was also a pleasure, in a certain sense, as I was thus enabled to pay this tribute to their patriotism. When the news of the attack on Sumter, in April, 1861, reached Penacook,...
