

The Bobbsey Twins Collection, Volume 3 at Meadow Brook at Home in a Great City

By Laura Lee Hope

Flying Chipmunk Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Walter S. Rogers (illustrator). Paperback. 354 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.4in. One of the longest running story series for children is The Bobbsey Twins and it has delighted children and their parents for over a hundred years now. Follow the adventures of two sets of young twins at the turn of the Twentieth Century when there were no telephones, radios, or televisions, and horses and carriages were common-place. When the series begins (1904), Bert and Nan are eight, and Flossie and Freddie are four. The twins enjoy wonderful days filled with sunshine and love with their playmates, Grace, Nellie, and Charlie, and get into and out of trouble as only little kids can manage. Their dog, Snap, and their cat, Snoop, go along on many of their adventures as they visit their uncle in Meadow Brook where a motion picture company films them and they help catch a crook; then Snoop gets stuck on a newly varnished floor, Freddie gets trapped under a fallen lumber stack, and their friend Tommy falls through the ice while skating on the lake; and then the family visits New York City where Freddie and Flossie promptly...
