Excerpt: . . . 11 vide affordable health insurance to the uninsured and under-insured in our country. I question whether our enactment of this bill is the right action to take. By allowing an uninsured to set up shop in one State to provide health insurance to a beneficiary in another, this bill intro-duces a host of problems and risks for the consumer. There is a point at which inadequate health insurance may be just as bad as no health insurance at all for a consumer. This bill may open the door for that dangerous scenario to become a reality. I fear the Health Care Choice Act offers more choice to the health insurer than to the beneficiary. The bill gives health insur-ers the opportunity to shop around and settle in what State has the fewest consumer protections. It is really a simple business decision. Every business seeks to operate in the most favorable business climate, and this legislation would allow health insurers to do that. The problem is consumers lose out on the protections that been they may have been granted undertheir own State law. In Texas, if a Texan buys a policy regulated in Alabama, he is protected by Alabama laws and not Texas laws. If the Texas con-sumer protection laws are stronger, then that policyholder is out of luck. To make matters worse, he cannot use his voting power to help change those laws that protect him because his...
